

Users have the possiblity to see the car in action by watching videos and images

The productpage provides a list all basic options

- 7 The productpage also provides ratings and reviews
- To get a clear overview about the differences between the variants, users have the possibility to compare them
- While configuring their car, they have the option to calculate their CO2 emissions.

- When a user has chosen a model, the next thing they need to do is choose a variant as a prefix
- Whenever a user made their choice, they can start configure their car.

Based on the user's preferences the data compiles the best results. The user is always possible to reset/undo it.